

Conditions for the Carriage of Goods by Road in Ireland 2018

These Conditions may be used by current FTA Ireland members.

These Conditions apply to the carriage of any Consignment, whether gratuitous or not, by the Carrier for the Customer (definitions of Carrier, Customer and Consignment are given in Clause 1. The Carrier is not and does not contract as a common carrier.

The Conditions may not be altered or varied in any way except by express agreement in writing signed by a director or proprietor of the Carrier. The Conditions cannot and do not override any Statutory provisions imposed by Law or the application of any applicable international Conventions. If any part of these Conditions be inconsistent with any such Statutory provision or any applicable international Convention, only the part of these Conditions which is inconsistent will be overridden and no further.

It is expressly stated to be the Customer's responsibility to read and understand these Conditions which will form the basis of the Contract under which any claims or disputes are settled. Customers are recommended to take professional advice and to ensure they arrange adequate insurance to provide full cover when the property is in transit. Customer's attention is specifically drawn to Clauses which exclude or limit the liability of the Carrier and Clause which limits the time for notification and bringing of any claim

In that event, the Carrier shall not be liable for loss damage or delay to the goods no matter howsoever or by whomsoever caused and the Customer agrees to indemnify the Carrier against all and any claims made by any Third Party in respect of the goods carried.
- 6.2 The Carrier shall be under no obligation whatsoever to arrange any insurance for the Consignment except unless otherwise agreed in writing between the Carrier and the Customer prior to the inception of the Carrier's liability for the Consignment under clause 6.3 below. Any such agreed insurance shall be arranged for the benefit of the Customer only and the Carrier acts solely as Agent for the Customer.
- 6.3 Subject to the provisions of Condition 6.1 above the Carrier's responsibility for the Consignment shall commence when the Carrier takes actual possession of the Consignment at the point of collection or at the Carrier's premises.
- 6.4 The Carrier's responsibility for the Consignment shall end when the Carrier, its agents or sub-contractors present the Consignment at the proper place of delivery within normal business hours.
- 6.5 If it has been agreed that the Consignee will collect the Consignment from the Carrier's premises and/or if the Carrier is prevented from making delivery at the Consignee's address as a consequence of the absence of a safe and/or adequate access or unloading facility, then the Carrier's responsibility for the goods shall end at the expiration of 24 hours after notice by letter, telephone, fax or e-mail or other agreed method of communication of the availability of the Consignment has been given to the consignee and/or the consignor.
- 6.6 At any time during the term of the Contract the Customer may request or the Contractor may recommend variations to the service and/or variations to any other matters covered by the Contract. Neither party shall be obliged to agree to any requested or recommended variation but neither party shall withhold its Agreement unreasonably. Until such time as any variation to the Contract resulting therefrom have been mutually agreed in writing, the parties shall continue to perform their respective obligations without taking account of the requested or recommended variation.
- 6.7 The Carrier has an absolute discretion as to the means, route and procedure to be followed in the transportation of the Consignment.

7 Carrier's charges

- 7.2 Notwithstanding any claim which the Customer may have against the Carrier, the Carrier's charges for carriage and any other services incidental to the carriage chargeable under the Contract shall be payable in full without deduction, deferment, and counterclaim or set-off by the Customer within thirty (30) days of the date of the invoice unless otherwise agreed in writing. The European Communities (Late Payment in Commercial Transactions) Regulations 2012, as amended, shall apply to all sums due from the Customer.

The Carrier's reasonable additional charges for retaining the Consignment pending such further instructions from the Customer and for carrying out those instructions shall be chargeable to and fully recoverable from the Customer.
- 8.2 Subject to the provisions contained in Condition 8.2 (i) to (iii) below, where the Carrier is unable to obtain further instructions from the Customer in accordance with Condition 8.1 and/or such further instructions are not provided within 21 days of a request for the same, the Carrier may sell the Consignment provided that such sale is permitted by law. The Carrier is entitled to deduct from the proceeds of any such sale all costs of and charges for the carriage of the Consignment, other services incidental to the carriage chargeable under the contract and any storage and disposal costs and expenses in relation to the Consignment,. Such deduction may be made irrespective of any claim or right which the Customer may have against the Carrier otherwise arising under the Conditions. The balance of such sale proceeds after any such deductions will be remitted by the Carrier to the Customer. Upon the sale of the Consignment the Carrier shall be discharged of all liability whatsoever in respect of the Consignment, its carriage and storage.

 - ii. Pending the expiry of such periods of notice as aforesaid and of disposal of the Consignment under these provisions the Carrier shall at the expense of the Customer have authority to arrange proper storage of the Consignment. During such period of storage the Consignment will be held at "owner's risk" and the carrier shall not be liable for loss or damage of the Consignment howsoever caused.
 - iii. In the event of a sale under this Condition the Carrier shall do what is reasonable to obtain the market value of the Consignment (subject to any unavoidable deterioration thereof). If the Consignment has no market value, then the Carrier may dispose of them subject to compliance with all legal requirements in force in respect of such goods.
- 8.3 Subject to the provision of Clause 8.1 above, and in circumstances in which the Carrier is unable to obtain further written instructions, the Carrier may, in respect of Dangerous Goods only, at his sole discretion dispose of the goods or return them to the Customer. Where such action is taken by the Carrier, it shall comply with all prevailing legal requirements that may be in force in respect of the goods. Any such action taken by the Carrier under this Clause shall be at the sole risk and expense of the Customer.
